Patricia Storms: Tales from an Illustrator in Residence

It's the New Year, and I am still thinking about my wonderful experience as the 2014 Joanne Fitzgerald Illustrator in Residence. As soon as I found out about this program in 2013, I was intrigued. Read more

Remembering Ted Harrison

The sad news that Ted Harrison recently died at age 88 touched Canadians in the fine arts and children's literature communities. We will miss the presence of this singular Canadian artist and friend of IBBY Canada. Read more

CANSCAIP Spotlight: Ken Setterington

Ken Setterington is an award-winning author and specialist in children's books in many ways. In an in-depth Q&A, Debbie Spring asks him about censorship, collaboration, and the importance of telling Canadian stories. Read more
